

This map illustrates the Kuma River basin, a significant geographical feature in Japan. The river originates in the mountainous regions of the Kumamoto and Oita prefectures and flows through several major urban centers, including Kumamoto City and Oita City, before emptying into the Ariake Sea. The map provides a clear view of the river's path and the surrounding administrative boundaries and settlements.

第2投票区
上赤 横通り
馬渡り橋付近

[illegible]

みやこ町

1 :25,000

A horizontal number line with tick marks at 500m, 0, 500, 1000, and 1500.

「一の横断は 国十横断財目が承認された。 日地発行の」