I kept running for a long time, and after 80 minutes, I finally reached the end!  Hiroshi: Wow! How did you feel while you were running?  Emily: Sometimes I felt tired and wanted to stop running. Then I heard cheerful words from people standing along the streets, and their words helped me continue running to the end.  Hiroshi: That's great! I joined a running event as a volunteer last year. We needed a lot of time to prepare for the event. Also, we gave water to the runners, and cleaned the streets after the event. The volunteers had many things to do.  Emily: Oh, I just remembered! I got water from the volunteers. I didn't know they supported me in many ways then. I needed to say "thank you" to them more.  Hiroshi: Runners, volunteers, and local people all work together to make an event.  Emily: That's right.
